

Camp HOPE America – San Diego Mentor Application

At Camp HOPE America - San Diego, we will be serving at-risk San Diego youth and their families that have experienced varying levels of pain, abuse, and neglect in their lives and it is our mission to guide them on their path to finding hope and healing. We believe that with the right mentoring and guidance, our campers can experience hope, life, and empowerment instead of cyclical abuse and other consequences of trauma. For this very reason, we want to be careful and wise in our selection of HOPE Counselors.

This year, we are seeking applicants who can commit to spend at least one week of camp with us during August and thereafter be involved in one 2–4 hour hope-centered mentoring event a month. Please take time to thoughtfully answer the following questions We look forward to learning more about you!
